

Please remember that our country was found on free speech and both sides must be given equal time.

Perhaps you could show how Halliburton profits from Iraz. Find out why Cheney won't answer questions. Liberal is not a word of derision but of compassion, caring, fair-mindedness. There are truthful things you could promote instead of underhanded Carl Rove Swift Boats trash. What about showing how Kerry went back to Vietnam with John Cain and made peace for our country. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license

renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
